To summarize the chart above detailing the 20 students who withdrew from IMSA from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024:

- 10 female and 10 male students withdrew
- Nine White students, six Hispanic or Latino students, three Black students, one Asian student, and one student who is two or more races.
- Three seniors, eight juniors, and nine sophomores

In addition to the 20 students who withdrew from the Academy between July 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024, three students were also dismissed for academic or behavioral reasons: one female and two males; the three students identify as Hispanic or Latino. The number of dismissals is down from the previous year.

For comparison purposes, the following is a summary of the 19 students who withdrew during the prior academic year, between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023:

- 11 female and 8 male students withdrew
- Seven White students, six Hispanic or Latino students, three Asian students, two Black or African American students, and one Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander student
- Three seniors, 10 juniors, and six sophomores

In addition to the 19 students who withdrew during the 2022-2023 year, seven students were also dismissed for academic or behavioral reasons: three females and four males; three Asian students, two White students, one Hispanic or Latino student, and one Black or African American student.

I am available to discuss this with you further at your request. Thank you.
